The products you want,
with the know-how you need

ERIKS is a European leader in the supply of industrial products, giving you access to the largest and broadest range in the UK.

But products are not all we provide.

Our specialist knowledge, experience and in-depth resources mean we can also provide the know-how you need, to ensure you get not only the right products, but also the best possible performance from them.

As a single source for industrial products, we make it easier and more cost-effective for you to find and purchase products you can rely on, backed by service you can depend on.

Product specialists

- Our team of dedicated product specialists can provide expert engineering solutions using a broad range of products, as well as helping and advising on selection, integration, customisation and supply methods.

Contacts with leading international manufacturers

- Our close relationships with the leading industrial product manufacturers gives us – and you – access to innovative products and full technical support.

Unbiased advice

- Because we both supply products and repair and refurbish, we can offer unbiased and independent advice to help you choose the best solutions for your situation.

ISO 9001:2000

- ERIKS is an ISO 9001:2000 assured source for all your industrial products and repairs.

Over 80 service centres

- Your local centre can hold a dedicated stock of items you may require at short notice, for supply, close to you, from over 80 locations across the UK.

In-house manufacturing facilities

- If we can't meet your particular product needs from our massive stock, we can produce a made-to-order solution with our in-house manufacturing facilities.

Flexible systems

- Whatever your preferred supply method – through local service centre stocks, vendor-managed inventory, kanban or line-side supply – our specially developed logistics systems can meet your needs efficiently, even for the the most complex multi-product supply requirements.
